

We Remember Them

*Here, in this garden of memories
We remember them.*

*In all the seasons
of our years
we remember them.*

*For their humor, wisdom,
perseverance
we remember them.*

*With love and deepest gratitude
we remember them.*

*Each day we know they are here with us
as we remember them.*

Unitarian Universalist Church of Spokane Memorial Garden

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Spokane (UUCS) invites Members and Friends to apply for use of the Memorial Garden.

Terms & Conditions:

The following persons are eligible to have their names engraved on a column in the Memorial Garden:

- A Member of UUCS
- A spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent or grandchild of a Member of UUCS
- A Friend of UUCS as defined by the Bylaws
- Any other person requesting and receiving permission from UUCS

The fee for engraving shall be adjusted as necessary. The Memorial Garden fund is held in trust by the Church. In addition to engraving names, the fund is used for the maintenance and enhancement of the Memorial Garden.

Ashes buried in the Memorial Garden or anywhere on church grounds shall not be buried in any type of container and are not recoverable. There is no fee for burial of ashes.

Memorial services, burial of ashes, plantings, or placement of any decorations or artwork within the Memorial Garden must be pre-approved by UUCS.

The use and maintenance of the Memorial Garden is intended to exist in perpetuity. Any necessary alterations, modifications, or relocations of the Memorial Garden or its features are under the purview of UUCS.
